

Today's Forum: Congregational Covenant Review

Our congregational covenant process is nearing completion. We are holding meetings to solicit feedback on a covenant draft that the team has put together, using our previous gatherings as their guide. We look forward to presenting the covenant and receiving your thoughts before the congregation votes at our annual meeting on June 8th. If you would like to share your feedback but cannot attend one of these meetings, please get in touch with Pastor Corinne (corinne@peaceucc.org)

Today after the 10:30 service: Intergenerational Spring Fling

Celebrate a belated Earth Day and the coming of spring here at Peace today. In our 10:30am worship service, the children will lead a puppet show about faithful Earth care. After worship, at 11:30am, head on down to the Fellowship Hall and lower-level parking lot, where lunch, a maypole dance, crafts, garden volunteering, and community organizations await. Bring your friends for a fun day for all! As part this year's Spring Fling, Melissa Boyle and Jen Stenersen will have a variety of veggie starts for sale as a fundraiser to help with our budget deficit. Look for tomatoes, peppers, broccoli, cauliflower, cabbage, lettuce, and flowers.
