May Forums

May 5th MN Conference UCC Outdoor Ministries

Rev. Kevin Brown, Associate Conference Minister of Faith Formation for Children & Youth, will provide a time for Q&A about the MN Conference UCC's hopes and plans for the future of Outdoor Ministries here. Ideas welcome! This is not just about camps for kids - though that's certainly part of it - it's about opportunities for people of all ages to experience God in creation and connection.

May 12th Hawk Ridge Bird Observatory & Nature Reserve

Margie Menzies describes herself as "One-part educator, two parts naturalist, and two parts bird nerd!" She serves as the Education Director at Hawk Ridge and has a passion for sharing about the natural world with people of all ages. Margie will present on the work of Hawk Ridge and opportunities for us to get involved and get outdoors this spring.

May 19th St. Mark Giving Garden

Dr. Elyse Carter Vosen will share information about St. Mark Giving Garden/Health Equity Northland. St. Mark Giving Garden is a food justice and health equity project in Duluth's Hillside Neighborhood. With 800 square feet of community space, they are looking for volunteers to help create community connections and plant, harvest and share thousands of pounds of fresh produce with their community members. Join us for the forum or reach out to Elyse to receive information about volunteer opportunities: Elyse Carter Vosen, (218) 723-6446, evosen@css.edu

May 26th Rev. Fahed Abu Akel

Rev. Fahed Abu Akel was ordained minister of the Presbyterian Church USA in 1978 and has served on the mission staff of the First Presbyterian Church of Atlanta. Rev. Fahed was instrumental for mission trips to Kenya, Haiti, Brazil, Egypt, Israel, and Palestine. He also was the 214th Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church USA.

Peace Church member Diana Oestreich met Rev. Fahed when she participated in Jesse Jackson's Gaza Ceasefire Summit in Chicago. He was speaking there representing the Palestinian Christians and as a guest of The Fellowship of Hope. Rev. Fahed is a peacemaker with a long history of interfaith relationship-building. He was born and raised in Galilee and his family is in Gaza.

From Rev. Corinne Freedman Ellis

I've been reflecting lately on my own tendency toward all-or-nothing thinking. This is a hallmark of white supremacy culture, and it's also part of my own tendency toward perfectionism. All-or-nothing thinking is the viewpoint that if you do it all, you shouldn't even start. I have this tendency in my running. When I was ten years younger, I could crank out a half-marathon at a 9:30 pace, which is certainly not fast, but it was a decent pace for me. As I train for Grandma's half, coming up in less than two months, I find myself unmotivated to run because I can't keep that pace anymore. For a few months, I've been trying to work my way up in my mileage, but I keep stalling out at 3 miles because I insist on tiring myself out by going all-out.

My mom was the one who suggested I try run/walking, following each 5-minute running interval with a 5-minute walking interval. I pushed that a little bit, of course, and said, what about 6 minutes of running and 4 minutes of walking? With this pattern, I was able to complete 5 miles feeling great, and at a 12:00 mile pace, which is pretty darn slow but better than sitting on the couch. I had been paralyzed by my need to go all-out, to do it right and perfectly. When I gave myself some ease and space, I was able to go so much farther than I could when I pushed.

As a church, we are observing Earth Day throughout the second half of April and the entire month of May. I often find myself turning to all-or-nothing thinking when it comes to climate change. If there are still corporations burning fossil fuels, then what does it matter if I drive a gasoline-powered car? If restaurants are throwing recyclables and compostables into landfills, then what does it matter if I do the same? The reality is, as a church, as individuals, and at a city and state level, if we sit on the couch, we're not going anywhere. But if we all do what we can, even if it seems like half-measures, we can really start to get somewhere.

At Peace Church we are becoming a WLSSD composting site and will be rolling out new recycling and compost bins. We have a Sustainability Team starting up that will explore changes, both large-scale and incremental, to get us somewhere. A collection of Talmudic and Jewish sources commenting on Micah 6:8 state, "Do not be daunted by the enormity of the world's grief. Do justly, now. Love mercy, now. Walk humbly now. You are not obligated to complete the work, but neither are you free to abandon it." I invite you to join in caring for creation in big and small ways this season and year-round.

From the Moderator

Greetings from Council! Our next meeting will be held on Monday, May 20th at 6:30, and we welcome guests. We held our regular council meeting this month on April 23rd, and had an in-house retreat on April 21st that included a walk around the neighborhood, some reflection time, and visioning for the years to come. It's exciting to consider what Peace will look like, sound like, and feel like in five years! It was also helpful to talk through some of the highlights of the past year(s), along with some of our challenges.

There are six council positions the congregation will be voting on in the coming year, including all at-large seats(4), the Stewardship Chair and the incoming vice-moderator. Several current council members are eligible and willing to stay on for a second term, but we are also hoping to hear from any interested members who might want to step into one of the open positions. You can contact the office for more information.

In financial news, our projected year-end budget deficit is shrinking - THANK YOU! The adult forum on April 28th broke down the details, but a high-level summary is that because of lower-than-anticipated expenses and higher-than-anticipated income, our year-end projected deficit has decreased from roughly $60,000 to roughly $40,000, and our actual income year-to-date exceeds our actual expenses. The finance committee and council will continue to monitor the budget and make adjustments as needed as the year proceeds. Peace, Jessica

Welcome Carrie Kelsey!

Carrie Kelsey joined Peace in November 2022 and you may have seen her singing in the choir, playing the fiddle, and volunteering at soup suppers. She has broad food service experience, including working at the Marshall School and Mount Royal Market. Carrie has creative ideas for how to accommodate dietary needs, involve our Stepping On Up residents, and build community through Wednesday night meals starting in the fall. We are thrilled to welcome her on board!

Peace News

Stewardship News

Greetings from your hardworking, year round Stewardship Committee. We wanted to report how we are doing on closing the budget deficit after the first quarter of the year. As of the end of March, we are projected to receive at least $8563 more than budgeted. We are also almost $1000 ahead of budget in Plate Offerings. This is great news and a positive trend.

If you haven't made an annual financial commitment to Peace and would like to receive more information, you can contact our bookkeeper, Mali at mali@peaceucc.org.

Thank you! - The Stewardship Team

Nurturing the Beloved Community: Our Congregational Covenant

A Message from Shared Ministry

The Shared Ministry team has an un-official motto - a job and a friend to do it with. Pastor Corinne talked about how vital and fulfilling it is to be a part of all the good we do at Peace, and if you were in the Fellowship Hall following the 10:30 service on April 21st, you could almost hear and feel the buzz. Teams and committee's had tables, representatives and treats to let people know who they are and what they do. Thank you to those who signed up that day (and you should be hearing from your grateful committee/team chairs soon), but its not too late to either inquire or sign up. Scan the QR code, fill out the short form that was in Sunday's bulletin, or the longer one found in the narthex. At least try one thing - its a great way to feel involved and meet new friends. - The Shared Ministry team

The Bake Sale is back!

Calling all Peace Church bakers! We are planning to have a Bake Sale during the Rummage Sale on September 7th. If you have a special baked item, one handed down in your family or is the most requested by your loved ones, we invite you to donate it to the sale. If you don't bake and want to assist with making Peach, Cherry and Apple Cobblers, let us know. We plan to sell cobbler and coffee during the Rummage Sale. Please contact bri@peaceucc.org and let her know what you might contribute and if you would like to volunteer. It's going to be lots of fun!

RECIPES NEEDED!

Do you have a favorite recipe you would like to share? If so, it's your lucky day. The Peace Church Cookbook is being updated and your contribution is needed. Please submit your recipe(s) to Bri by June 30th. Thank you!

The Peace Church vegetable garden is looking for used, but still in good condition wood, to shore up our raised beds. We used all the 2X4s we had salvaged from the demolition of the education wing, but still need more to finish the project. If you have useable boards, or questions, please call Kay Stevens (218)340-0728.

Property News

There are three related groups working in coordination with the Property Team who also are active and looking for support: The Food Waste Drop Site and Sustainability, Playground visioning and care, and the Peace Garden. Please contact Bri in the office for more information and to get on the mailing list.

New: Sustainability Team and Food Waste Drop Site

Peace Church will soon become a new location for a WLSSD community food waste drop site! Come to Spring Fling for more composting information provided by WLSSD and look for new bins and signage at Peace this summer.

Along with this exciting new development we are working to implement more sustainability practices in our own congregation and are forming a new Sustainability Team. This team would work in conjunction with both the Food and Fellowship and Property teams. Helping educate and facilitate composting and recycling at large food related events and adding more pollinator friendly landscaping are some of the initial projects we will work on. Interested in joining this team? Contact Melissa Boyle (marvelous.melissa.boyle@gmail.com) or Bri (bri@peaceucc.org) in the church office.

Property Team Work Day, May 9th, 5:30-8:00pm.

This evening involves tree planting! Bring your shovel and gloves and help us bring new life to the grounds. There will be additional small inside projects for handy- and no-so-handy alike! Please join us, the last couple of work days have really been fun! Contact Stacey Stark (stacey.stark@gmail.com) or Bri (office@peaceucc.org) for more information.

New: Playground Visioning and Care Team

With extensive repairs needed in our playground and garden spaces, we have a once-in-a-generation opportunity to reimagine our design in the backyard. We seek dreamers, visionaries, planners, builders, and users to help us think about what we want next. Please consider contributing your thoughts, skills, and efforts, in whatever capacity, to our planning committee. Please contact Bud Trnka (budtrnka@gmail.com), or the office (office@peaceucc.org) if you're interested in learning more. Be on the lookout for future opportunities to contribute your ideas!

Property Team Update

Due to increased interest in Peace's significant physical assets, the Property Team is very active and expanding! The Property Team meets the second Monday of each month at 6:30pm. There are many ways you can join in the fun and satisfaction of this work! You can help as little or as much as you want with activities ranging from product research, painting, and small repairs to planting and earth moving!

There is much to be excited about for this year's Spring Fling! Please join us after church on Sunday, May 19th for a festival of growth, music, food, crafts, joy, and fellowship. There will be opportunities to learn more about native planting, paint your own planet, dance to music, and connect with Peace Church artists and crafters. This is an all-ages, all-abilities event rooted in our stewardship of God's creation. Best of all, we will be debuting an exciting new addition to our neighborhood services! ### Welcome to Wednesday Night Bible study! Wednesdays, 6:00pm

Did you know that Peace Church has an ongoing Bible study every Wednesday evening, and we welcome anyone who is interested to join us? We welcome a wide variety of questions and comments. The group decides what we will study each week, and cover a variety of both Old and New Testament readings. Please, come join us in the Fireside room or on Zoom.

Reflection on the Psalms from Wednesday Bible Study from Tom Liddle

The psalms are "an anatomy of the soul." So said one of our wise but often dour spiritual ancestors, John Calvin. We did however find it to be true in Wednesday Bible study. The psalms run the whole gamut of emotional experiences we humans have and are truly a spiritual treasure. Want to learn how to pray? Read the psalms! A couple of weeks ago we each brought a psalm to Bible study and shared why and how they were meaningful to us. We learned some new things about the Bible of course, but most importantly, we learned about each other. Here are the psalms we chose:

Deb shared psalm 57, a lament and petition that turns to gratitude. For Molly, psalm 121 gives assurance of God's protection on the journey of life. Louise loves psalm 46 for its comfort and assurance in an unsteady world. Nadine connects with the petition for learning and assurance of forgiveness in psalm 25. Tom choose psalm 13, a cry of lament that ends in praise. For Bob it was psalm 131 because, "this is where I am in my life." Annette loves psalms 149 and 150 - all creation praising God! Drew had psalm 22 on his mind: "Jesus prayed it on the cross." Must be worth pondering!

As an "anatomy of the soul," there is a psalm for virtually every human emotion imaginable. What a gift! It gives us permission and an invitation to bring the totality of who we are and what we experience to God. And as Deb wisely shared, "the psalms give us words when we have none of our own."

Choir Rehearsals Wednesdays, 6:15pm

We rehearse 6:15 - 7:30pm on Wednesdays in the sanctuary, and sing for the 10:30 Sunday services. Contact Jim Pospisil at jim@peaceucc.org if you have any more questions.

Children, Youth and Families

Hello Families,

I'm writing to you the week of ISD 709's Spring Break and I'm definitely feeling the Spring Fever! In Children's Church for the last month, we have been talking about Earth Day, climate change and how we can care for our environment while processing the complicated feelings that accompany these topics, to create agency, resiliency and hope for the future!

On Pentecost Sunday, May 19th, after the 10:30am service we will be putting some of the things we have been talking about into action at our Spring Fling celebration. We will be celebrating our new Community Compost Program through WLSSD, working in the garden, learning about environmental initiatives, supporting local artists, crafting, eating, and fellowshiping. It's bound to be a fun community day and we hope your family can join us!

This month also marks wrapping up youth and OWL programming for the 2023-2024 school year, but there will be multiple opportunities for youth to be connected through the summer, including an exciting West Central and Great Lakes Regional Youth Event in July developed by UCC conferences.

This year our summer day camp/ VBS program is called Compassion Camp! This day camp will explore what it means to have compassion for others, ourselves, and the world.

Finally, we will be reducing Children's Church programming to once a month during the summer, so that we can focus on planning for the start of our new Wednesday night activities for children and youth beginning in Fall 2024. On Sundays when we do not have Children's Church, we will have self-guided activities available to you and your children in our Pray-Ground spaces.

There continue to be many activities happening in the life of our children and youth ministries at Peace! Please reach out to amanda@peaceucc.org with any questions, feedback or ideas, or if you want to become more involved with children and youth ministry!

Wishing you Love in Action, Amanda

Nursery

The Nursery is now located downstairs in the Sunroom, by the elevator. Nursery Staff are available through Sunday, May 26th during the 10:30 service, and occasionally during other events, please check the weekly email for updates!

Parents, please make sure to fill out the sign in/ sign out sheet with your information before you drop off/pick up your children. Please let us know about any questions/concerns that you have as parents, or if there are other times on Sunday mornings or at church events that it would be helpful for your child to have nursery services. Thanks!

If you would prefer to have your child with you in worship, feel free to utilize one of our Pray-Ground spaces, located in the Sanctuary and just outside of the Sanctuary near the Fireside Room. These spaces offer quiet activities where parents and kiddos can engage in play and creativity while still participating in worship.

OWL (for 9th graders) Sundays, 6:00pm

OWL (Our Whole Lives) Sexuality Curriculum meets May 5th and 12th this month at UUCD.

Children's Church

Come join us for Children's Church each Sunday through May 26th, during the 10:30 service. Kids stay in the service until Story for All Ages, leave for Children's Church for 20-30 min (where we sing, read stories, make art and have fun) and then come back with the adults for communion/offering. All kids and youth (and parents!) are welcome to join us – it's always a sweet and lively time together!

Children's Church will be meeting once a month through the summer: June 16th, July 14th, and August 18th. On other Sundays during the summer, children and parents will have access to our Pray-Ground areas with engaging activities to keep kids interested!

Middle School (grades 6-8) Youth Group Wednesdays, 6:00pm

Youth group will meet 4 times this month, through Wednesday, May 22nd at 6:00pm! On May 1st, the youth will be wrapping up this Spring's Bible Study using Manna and Mercy. May 8th, we will be helping Nina Preheim to create squares for a Peace Quilt. May 15th, Peace member and youth volunteer, Warren Post will share his faith journey with our youth. May 22nd, will be a game night celebration for the end of the school year and include yummy snacks! We will not be meeting every Wednesday through the summer but will keep you updated with plans for gathering to stay connected!

Graduation Sunday is June 2nd!

An email went out last month to the families of graduating High School Seniors. If you did not receive that email, please contact Amanda ASAP for more info so that we can celebrate your Senior. This is a wonderful moment to celebrate our young people and send them on the next steps of their life journey with blessings from the whole congregation.

Love > Fear – West Central and Great Lakes Regional Youth Event (RYE) – July 17th -20th at Augustana College in Rock Island, IL

This year we will be combining the Middle School and High School Summer Youth Trips! RYE brings hundreds of youth from United Church of Christ congregations in Minnesota and across the Great Lakes and West Central regions together for three days of connection, fun, worship, service, and learning. We are excited to be working with The Many to provide music, worship, and program leadership throughout our time together. The Many is an uncommon, intentionally diverse collective making music for people to sing together about peace and justice and a world where all belong. Youth participants must have completed grades 6 – 12 at the time of the event. Registration is due May 15th! Reach out to Amanda ASAP if your youth would like to attend or if you would like to volunteer as an adult leader.

Spring has sprung! And, by Duluth standards, it seems to have sprung nice and early. So, it's time to garden!

For those perennial and native plant gardeners, have you seen the update to the plant hardiness zone map? According to the PBS story linked here, (<https://tinyurl.com/Plant-zones>) in comparison to the 2012 map, the new 2023 update released in November shows that as our climate continues warming, plant hardiness zones are shifting northward. At first, that may sound kind of exciting; thoughts of being able to grow some plant varieties that were previously unavailable to us of course sounds great. However, as our weather patterns become more unpredictable, our gardens are experiencing more extreme water and drought events and heat stress. Our once tolerant Minnesota natives may have a more difficult time.

Also, as temperature zones change for plants, so do they for pests. Like the Emerald Ash Borer, pests that previously did not thrive here are making their homes in our gardens. It is fortunate then that we Northern Minnesota Gardeners have not changed our own hardiness! We will continue to adapt by growing perennials that have broader hardiness zones, experimenting with new varieties, splitting our thriving plants and then continuing to share them with others. A reminder as you buy your new plants this year, whether annuals or perennials, that you buy from sources that do not use neonicotinoids; let's make sure our beautiful gardens are helping and not harming our local pollinators.

Also one last reminder, the Peace Church Spring Fest is Sunday, May 19th, and will include garden activities along with music and fun. See you there and happy spring gardening!

What Peace Means to Me

Kay Stevens

Our involvement at Peace and the people here are part of the very fabric of our lives. In this community we have been able to work to accomplish so much more, than we could ever have done on our own.

There have been common threads that have carried through our time here - prayer chain, Bible study and sharing food, but other involvement has changed over the years.

In the beginning, when Bob took the job as Christian Ed director here, we had our own kids and young foster kids at home. We were drawn to involvement with nursery, Sunday school, VBS, confirmation, etc. In our middle years boards, committees, council, choir, adult ed and social justice issues called to us. We are now seeking more short term, hands on involvement like, gardening, demolition, baking rhubarb treats, small project work days, are available by sign up, almost any time we want. Through it all, as a total bonus, we have gotten to know many different people and made life long friends.

We would have to say, we can't imagine our lives without the involvement & people of Peace Church, which have made the fabric of our lives so much stronger and more vibrant.

Cyndi Brown

I first began to usher, knowing that there was a need for ushers, knowing that I could fulfill that need. I wanted to fulfill a need, to give back to a community that had given to me. And through ushering, I have grown. I help ready the church for worship, and I meet and greet people face to face. People have grown to trust me, to trust my presence here. When I'm not here, people notice.

For a year or so, I ushered 8:30 alone. Here and there I would ask people to help with the offering and then more and more of the ushering duties. Now we stand strong every week as a team with a ushering rotation.

As an extension of my work of ushering, I joined the Worship and Arts team. I contribute my knowledge and questions based on life experience and also, in large part, on what I've learned not only through greeting people and receiving the offering, but also through some knowledge of the underbelly working of the church that I've gleaned through set up and clean up. Worship and Arts is yet another way to give back to a community that has nurtured me. I am grateful to serve.

Tres Commer

I've been attending Peace Church since 2021. You've probably seen me singing in the choir or playing some type of music on Sundays. I wanted to share my story about what brought me to Peace and the ways Peace has enriched my life.

The church I attended growing up was actually fairly progressive, at least for the time. It was a church that welcomed everyone on their own spiritual journey and respected the individual nature of that journey. As I got older, I moved away from the church. I saw Christianity being used to justify some pretty regressive views. How could a religion based on love and acceptance be used as a justification for denying the rights of our LGBTQ sisters and brothers? Why had Christianity, with its themes of compassion and helping others, been adopted by a political faction of people whose central ethos seemed to be "every person for themselves"?

As the years went by, I found I missed being part of a faith community. Also, I missed the music. Music was a big part of my church upbringing. I had gotten to play handbells, learn piano, and even play organ once or twice during services.

I started attending Peace Church and found a progressive Christian community that was not only surviving but thriving. I am so grateful to be part of a family that represents faith in action. A community that values our LGBTQ sisters and brothers, a community that advocates for positive social change.

Peace is a place where I can express and celebrate my spirituality through music. I really do have to thank Jim Pospisil for being so welcoming. Also thanks to Ron Deters, and Ian Connell, and of course all of my friends in the choir for welcoming me right into Peace's musical family.

Peace is also a place where I can be inspired. Not just in the amazing sermons I hear every Sunday, but in the numerous opportunities for activism and social justice work.

But most importantly, Peace is a family. It's a place where I feel accepted for who I am and invites me to accept others just as they are. It's an honor to be part of this family and an honor to give back to the Peace Church community.

Lisa Fitzpatrick

I am a climate healer. What I love about Peace Church is that it's open to all people and caring for the earth. Earth and we are a manifestation of God's love for us. All the earth and beings on earth are holy and of love. We are like a flock of birds, singing love for all creation and creator. As people of faith, we have a special moral connection. We love each other and Creator God and the world. Be aware and don't despair.

CHUM is “People of faith working together to provide basic necessities, foster stable lives, and organize for a just and compassionate community.”

Homeless Day on the Hill: 37 people from 7 local organizations, congregations, and people currently living homeless in Duluth met with Reps. Liz Olson, Natalie Zeleznikar and Liish Kozlowski, and Sen. Jen McEwen, as well as Sen. Grant Hauschild's staff (he was ill at home).

Thanks to St. Andrew's by the Lake, Peace Church, Kenwood Lutheran, and St. Paul's Episcopal for providing 2 meals and snacks for the bus trip, and College of St. Scholastica and Governor Tim Walz and Lt. Governor Peggy Flanagan were among those who addressed over 900 people gathered at Central Presbyterian Church before moving to the Capitol to meet with our district legislators. We carried our needs and concerns to each of our legislators, and celebrated what we accomplished in 2023.

Volunteer Appreciation will be on Monday, May 6th, at Our Savior's Evangelical Lutheran Church. Two different times are available (12:00pm & 5:30pm) so that, hopefully, everyone can make it! There will be a light meal, share stories, express gratitude, and celebrate the impact we have made together for our community.

The Spring Assembly will be May 23rd.

The Rhubarb Festival is coming up in June, so stay tuned for volunteer requests for prepping, baking, serving...

Canned fruit, preferably in natural juices is still being requested. You can drop off food at the basket across from the Peace UCC office.

Any questions, please feel free to ask Louise Hawley or Laurie Berner.
